

E-Merging Writers Film Projects

E-Merging Writers is currently shopping two scripts for filming:

Southern Gothic Novel (60 min. live comedy special) – a sweet $25K or less Filmed as one-hour comedy special (“At least an HBO Special” —Show Business Weekly; “Flawless” – New York Times). Easily filmed following a block of comedy specials in the style of the Comedy Central half-hour specials. Or easily filmed from a single or the many live performances around the country. Works in small and large live venues. Total costs would include one SAG/Equity performer and only the basic union stagehand requirements (none are needed), as well as quality video and editing.

Described best by a fan, “It’s a play, that’s really like a movie based on a book told by one guy.”

Stabilized Not Controlled (80 min. comedy feature) – estimated $60K
Film adapted version of successful and funny NY-based play in and around 5-floor walk-up building with minimal locations, main locations secured. Budget includes quality editing and sound, quality make-up and costumes for 17 characters to be played by a few individuals. RECOMMENDED, using 4 actors, secure one or two names (have “names” who could and would like to participate)—quality character actors who are realistic and funny.
Dream/sample cast: Lynn Cohen, Bill Hader, Jim Dale, Uzo Aduba. But with a dream cast, you’ll have to jack that cost up for everyone you get—however, it can be filmed in less than 2 weeks.

New York landlord tries to pick off his tenants who gang together under the guide of a septuagenarian reformed sex addict. “Funny. Very funny. And then some.”
